Leadership Transition and Peaceful Turnover

A major highlight of the conference was the peaceful turnover of leadership from the 2025–2026 administration to the newly elected leadership of LSUIC. Outgoing President Hon. Olano Teah Bloh and his corps of officials officially handed over power and warmly embraced the new leadership, pledging their support and cooperation for the continued upliftment of the Union. This transition reflected LSUIC's democratic culture and institutional maturity. It demonstrated the Union's commitment to continuity, collaboration, and progress.

New Leadership Sworn In on July 26, 2026

On July 26, 2026, the new National Executive Committee was officially sworn into office, marking the beginning of a new chapter in LSUIC's leadership journey. Hon. Moses Kingsford Flomo led the new team and was formally sworn in as the 17th President of the Liberian Student Union in China (LSUIC). In his inaugural address, Hon. Flomo expressed his commitment to advancing the vision of LSUIC through unity, service, transparency, and collective responsibility. He emphasized the importance of prioritizing the welfare of Liberian students across

China, strengthening institutional structures, promoting collaboration among members, and building a more responsive and effective Union that represents the interests of every scholar.

The swearing-in ceremony represented a defining moment of renewal, responsibility, and collective aspiration for a stronger LSUIC. It marked the beginning of a new administration committed to Excellence Through Hard Work, sustainable development, and continued progress for the Liberian student community in China.

National Executive Committee (2026–2027)

The new administration is led by the following National Executive Committee members:

NAME	OFFICE
Hon. Moses Kingsford Flomo	National President
Hon. John Tarway Twalla	National Vice President
Hon. Frederick Francis Johnson II	National Secretary General
Hon. Abraham Dixon	National Deputy Secretary General
Hon. Alfreda Ruth Togbah	National Financial Secretary
Hon. Antoinette T. Dickson	National Treasurer
Hon. Laimah Acee Dowie	National Chaplain General

2026 Amended Constitution: Strengthening LSUIC's Institutional Foundation

A significant milestone during this period was the development of the new 2026 Amended Constitution of LSUIC.

The amendment process was undertaken by the Constitution Review Committee, which reviewed existing constitutional provisions and worked toward strengthening LSUIC's governance structure, accountability, and institutional continuity.

Under the leadership of:

- Hon. Joshua Bosco Barvor
Chairperson, Constitution Review Committee

The committee contributed to the development of an improved constitutional framework designed to guide LSUIC's future development. The amended constitution represents LSUIC's commitment to maintaining effective governance and ensuring that the Union continues to evolve with the needs of Liberian students in China.

Presence of the Ambassador and Embassy Delegation

The conference was honored by the presence of the Ambassador and a full team from the Embassy of Liberia.

The Ambassador praised LSUIC for organizing a well-organized program and reaffirmed the Embassy's commitment to supporting the Union.

In his remarks, the Ambassador promised his full involvement with the union and promise to support in whatever way he can.

The presence of the Ambassador and his delegation further strengthened the relationship between LSUIC and the Embassy.

LSUIC Crowns Her First Queen, Yvonne Blamoh

Another historic moment during the conference was the crowning of LSUIC's first Queen, Miss Yvonne Blamoh.

Brief Remarks:

"Being crowned LSUIC's first Queen is an honor I deeply cherish, I am grateful for the opportunity to represent our community, inspire others, and use this platform to promote unity, support, and positive change. I give all the glory to God and look forward to serving with purpose and making this crown meaningful beyond the title..."

The crowning represented a memorable milestone in LSUIC's history and added another dimension of celebration, representation, and community engagement.

Chinese Counterparts Promise Support for Next Conference

LSUIC's Chinese counterparts expressed their appreciation for the relationship between both communities and promised to sponsor the next conference. This commitment reflects the growing partnership between LSUIC and its Chinese counterparts and highlights continued cooperation and friendship.

Social Moments from the Conference

Beyond the official activities, the conference provided opportunities for scholars, delegates, and guests to interact, celebrate, and strengthen relationships.

The social moments reflected the diversity, unity, and community spirit of Liberian students in China.

A New Era of Service and Progress

The 17th Annual Conference represents more than a leadership transition; it represents LSUIC's continued journey toward institutional growth, stronger partnerships, and improved service to Liberian students across China.
